"Cell Phone Tower Deaths:
The Workers at Heights Safety and Health Initiative"

Wally Reardon, from Pulaski, is an injured tower worker who coordinates the Workers at Heights Safety and Health Initiative, a project of the Occupational Health Clinical Center at Syracuse. He worked on towers for nearly 14 years, and has interviewed those who have survived serious injury and surviving family members who lost loved ones. In 2010, Reardon won one of the nation's highest occupational health and safety awards for grassroots activism
